Students shown the ropes at orientation

By Lynda Gosselin

The College's 11th Orientation session was the starting for well over 1000 new students at Conestoga College. They spent a few weeks in a new place.

Students were an upturning orientation session with the Dean of Education (DOE) located on York University from York University about activities and orientation for new students.

Young people still in high school who completed applications for admission and orientation for new students at Conestoga College.

After the students were oriented, they were taken to the school and walked down the hall to their rooms.

John MacKenzie, president of Conestoga College, told the students: "We have things that could save your life in case of an emergency, so it's good to know what to do in case of an emergency."

Students were shown the ropes at orientation. They spent a few weeks in a new place.

MacKenzie said the students would be required to show up every day. Students will also be required to show up every day. At that time, the students were shown the ropes at orientation.

Fernandes a flying success

By Lyndie Shawley

John Fernandes, owner of his San Francisco restaurant and a graduate of all the business and educational programs at Conestoga, was recently named one of the top 100 young men in the world.

Not just at the world but also by his own terms. In the 1980s, Fernandes, then 26, was born in the United States. He is now a resident of San Francisco, where he owns a restaurant. He is also a graduate of Conestoga College, where he earned his degree in Business Administration.

Fernandes, 30, who graduated from Conestoga in 1985, is the owner of a restaurant in San Francisco, where he is also a graduate of Conestoga College.

Fernandes earned his business degree at Conestoga because he could graduate in three years, completed his education while he was in the military, and he was a graduate of the first of the first.

Fernandes said that although his business program at Conestoga was not as rigorous as the one he completed at the University of California, he was able to get a lot of experience.

As for his experience in the military, Fernandes said that he was in the United States Marine Corps, and he was a graduate of the first of the first. He was a graduate of the first of the first.

Typing that needs no tutoring.

Students, your assignment today is to learn how to use the Smith Corona XL 2500 typewriter.

Oops, don't get too settled in your seats. The XL 2500 isn't a very difficult study.

In fact, unlike most electronic typewriters, it's a downright snap to pick up.

The Spell-Right® 50,000 word electronic dictionary adds new meaning to the word "simple."

WordEraser® erases entire words at a single touch.

WordFind® finds your mistakes before anyone else can.

The XL 2500 even makes correcting mistakes as easy as making them.

With the Smith Corona Correcting Cassette, you simply pop in your correction tape.

There are no spools.

... no winding.

... no complicated threading.

... no tangles.

Of course, we've also added lots of other fine features to the XL 2500.

There's full line correction, Auto Half-Space, Auto Center, even our Right Ribbon System™ which automatically prevents you from using the wrong combination of ribbon and correcting cassette.

Oh, one more feature we forgot to mention — the price. You'll be happy to hear that the XL 2500 is surprisingly affordable.

So you see, the XL 2500 won't just make your writing easier.

It'll also help you with your economics.
